

SAMARA STATE UNIVERSITY OF ECONOMICS

Année 2015/2016

World economy 2016 : Globalization challenged by regionalization

Julien DEMONCEAUX

COURSE SUMMARY

Introduction

Chapter 1 : Globalized economy and finance

Section A : Monetary policies

- 1/ Central banks
- 2/ Currencies balances

Section B: Budget policies

- 1/ Déficits
- 2/ The rising of the golden rule
- 3/ Budgetary orientation, spring of international tensions

Section C: Regulation policies

- 1/ Credit rating agencies; chronicle of a international failure
- 2/ Regulatory institutions: the bigger it is, the weakest it is

Chapitre 2 : Globalized economy and population

Section A: Demography and globalization

- 1/ Evolution and distribution of the world demography
- 2/ Globalization, revealer or origin of population's inequality

Section B: Migration policies

- 1/ Historical massive population movement
- 2/ Regionalisation of massive population movement

Section C : Education policies

- 1/ Consequences of internationalization of education policies
- 2/ The education paradoxe: glocalisation

Chapitre 3 : Globalized economy and goods & services trade

Section A : Relocatable production : manufactured goods

- 1/ The cyclic development of world trading
- 2/ The golden age of international trade vs periodic restance

Section B : Non-relocatable production : commodities

- 1/ : Ask management
- 2/ : Offer management
- 3/ : Environnemental policies

Section C: Tax incentive policies and tax dissuasion policies

- 1/ Globalization ruled by foreign tax policies
- 2/ Globalization ruled by domestic tax policies

Conclusion